“WE PLAY HARD”

WHAT IT MEANS AT VENTURA COLLEGE

“Our philosophy, from basic fundamentals through team play, has its foundation in playing hard. Playing hard is more than winning and losing. It means giving your best effort, all the time. It means never having to make excuses. Playing hard is the most important skill we teach at Ventura College.”

-VC Women’s Basketball Head Coach, Ned Mircetic

CAMP DIRECTOR: NED MIR CETIC

- * Became the fastest coach in college basketball history to reach 500 wins in 2007. His career coaching record is 564-85 (.869 winning pct.).
- * Led Ventura College Women’s Basketball Team to Five California State Championships (1996, 1997, 2000, 2001, 2002).
- * His teams played in the state Final Four nine consecutive years ('95-'03), and has reached the state tournament 12 times, including 2009 when the Pirates were 34-1. VC played in seven straight state championship games ('96-'02).
- * Ventura College has won 19 straight Western State Conference titles ('91-'09)
- * Has conference record of 201-5 (.976 winning pct.).
- * Coached VC Men’s Team to 24-9 record and WSC Championship in 2009.
- * Was an assistant with the 1987 VC men’s championship team.

Coach Mircetic stresses the importance of academics with his players. In 18 years, 82 players have continued their education at four-year schools. Many of those students have received their bachelor’s and master’s degrees. Mircetic’s 2002 state championship team earned an overall GPA of 3.37 and was awarded the State Scholar Team Award. VC’s 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, and 2008 teams were honored on the Women’s Basketball Coaches Association National Academic Honor Roll. This past fall, the team earned a 3.37 GPA.
